ABODE OF LOVE

SYMBOLS WITHIN - AND THEIR MEANING

Trillions of years ago, before Humim Beings were created in the physical form upon the planet Earth (also known as the Blue Rock, TIAMAT, AMTU, TIWAWAT OR QI), there existed Supreme Beings Or ANUNNAQI, ELOHEEM, Also Known As Nephiliam (נפילים) in Hebrew (Genesis 6:4), Malaa'ikat (ملائكة), In Nubic (Koran 2:102) and Angelous (αγγελος) in Greek (Matthews 1:20). The Omnipotent or ANU endowed these supreme beings with superior knowledge, for he knew that eventually the time would come when they the ANUNNAQI, ELOHEEM would have to return to QI in order to guide its inhabitants back toward the path of righteousness; thereby, helping them to become once again, the ELOHEEM of pure essence that they once were.

And so it was... for once humim became ruler over QI, they gradually forgot that their purpose in life was to gain their way back toward THE MOST HIGH, ELYOWN ELYOWN EL, and instead, they became engrossed in "their" desires. While in pursuit of physical gratification and material gain, humim forgot the pure beings they once were, and forgot who's image and after who's likeness they were formed of (Genesis 1:27), and as a result humims strayed from the original laws and the path of spiritual perfection which was given to them by these supreme beings. It was then that The Omnipotent force of the universe personified those Supreme Beings from the great circle and throne of wisdom.

Behold, Only This Have I Found, That The Omnipotent Has Formed Humims So That They May Follow A Straight Path, But That They Have Sought Instead, Many Humim Made Ways.

BY THE HAND OF MELCHIZEDEK

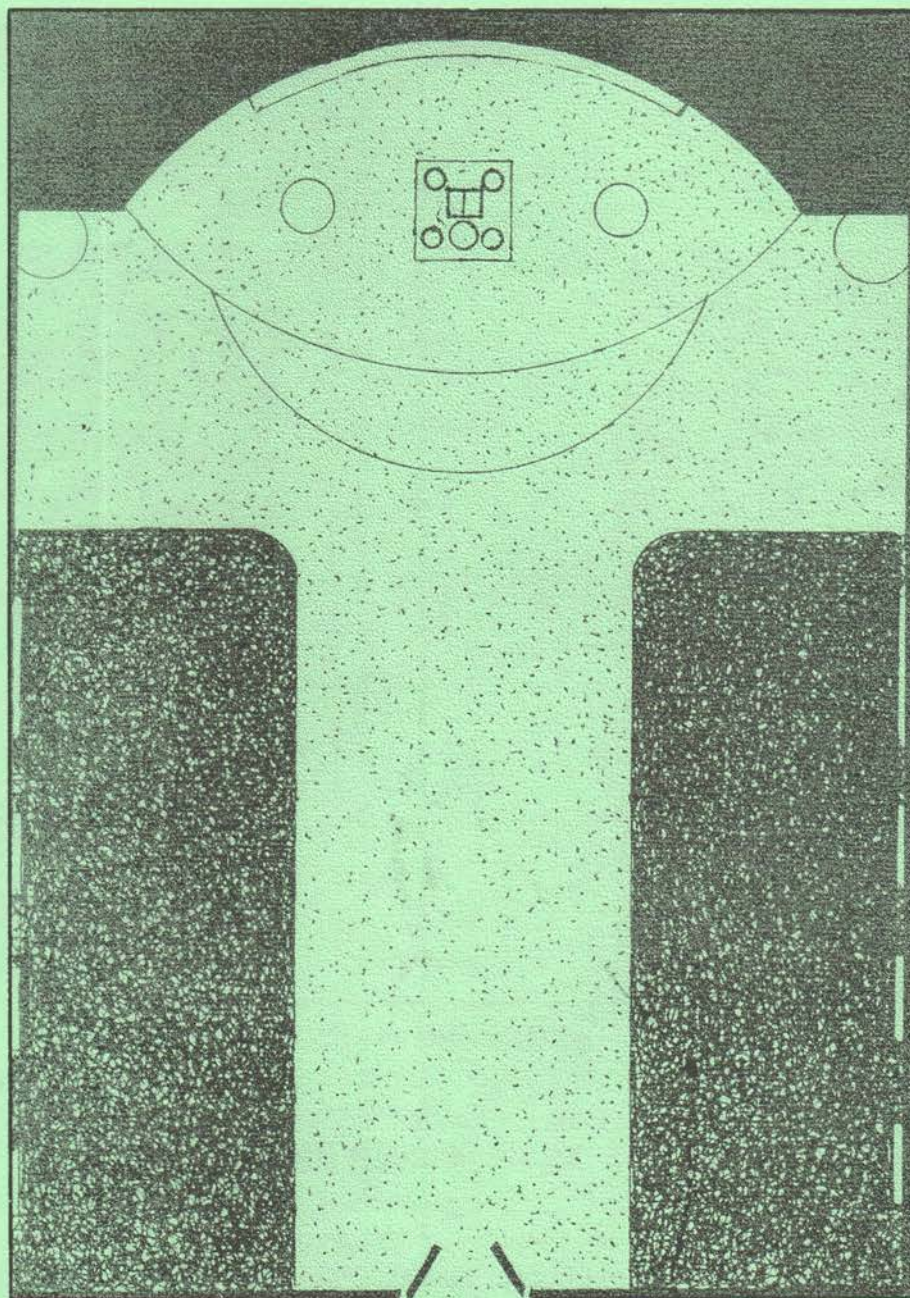

The Supreme Beings whom The Omnipotent instructed in the mysteries of life, and whom he personified upon The Planet Earth Also Known As QI, were Elders; also known as THE FIRST ONES, THE ANCIENT ONES, THE ORIGINAL ESSENES. These elders inspired a chosen few leaders toward greater overstanding, so that they in turn, could lead their fellow beings toward the higher ways by rekindling the essence of divine love that they once had being Al Kuluwm (The Science Of Quantum Physics). The Elders were only able to teach a chosen few, for although many were called few were they who overstood.

ABODE OF LOVE

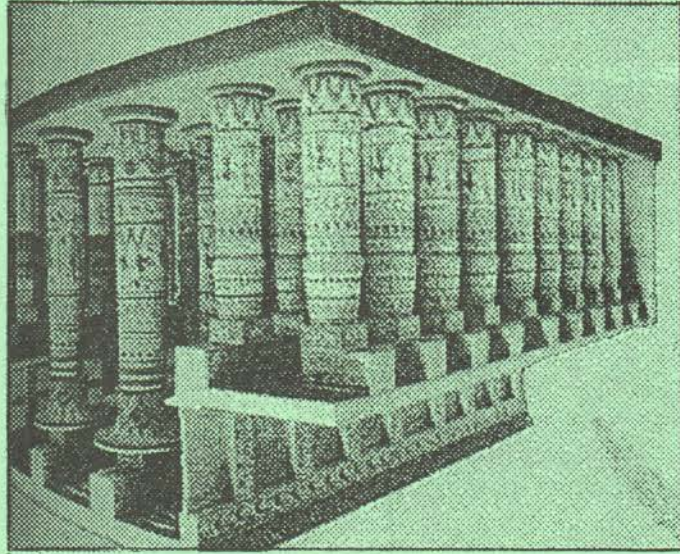

ABODE OF LOVE

In order to teach humim the knowledge of the universe, thereby enabling him to realize that there is more to life than the immediate pleasures and luxuries which this planet earth has to offer, it became necessary to establish "Mystery Sites Of Higher Learning."

There were mystery sites inside the great pyramids of Kemet called Egypt or Misr, and Misriym and in various temples found in Mu, Karnak, Nubia, Atlantis, Tibet, Persia, India and elsewhere.

Cave Temple Found In Ajanta, India

Temple Of Amon-Ra
In Karnak

Step Pyramid Found At Saqqarah, Egypt

Years ago, those interested in the teachings would journey to these mystery sites in order to be instructed, but as years passed and times changed it became necessary to establish different forms of communications. No longer was humim able to travel great distances in order to sit at the feet of the masters and study diligently day after day and year after year, instead, the teachings had to be brought to them. Thus, you now receive the teachings in the mail, and in addition, there are sites established which meets the needs of our times. Take for instance, this, the temple "ESAGILA", pronounced Esajala . ESAGILA which is a Sumerian term "He Whose Head Is Lofly," the temple of Murdoq. Esagila is not like its mother of old in stature and grandeur, but it is nevertheless an upper room of learning. Esagila Comes From The Nubic Root Word (سَجَل) Sajala A Writing Or A Scroll Writtern Upon , it later got the meaning A Pouring Forth Of The Koran, The Reading Or Recitation Of The Koran Consecutively, Continuously, This temple was inspired by The Universal Order Of Love, or The Abode Of Divine Love. An abode or daar(دَار), in the Nubic language means a "dwelling place or home". 'Ishq عِشْق means divine love, excessive love, spiritual passion and complete devotion. And it is with this type of love that a true kosmosan seeks His Or Her Place In The Omnipotent.

Love, Kosmosan, is a force which transcends all other emotions. It is a force which has the power to heal, to destroy and unite. When together all humim learn to embrace love, then and only then will the universe sing in harmony. The love I am referring to is not the type of love that one has for his next of kin - that type of love you can show with little effort for it is a natural feeling within that pours out instinctively. The love I am speaking of is the emotion which awakens your heart and allows you to soar fearlessly, full of strength and confidence, through the heights of the soul and its seven inner hearts of which we will teach you in later studies.

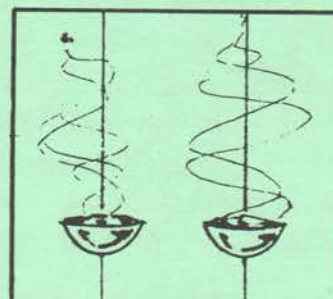

Esagila is The Ancient Mystic's Order Of Melchizedek place of fervent devotion. It is the corner of The Ancient Mystic Order. It is a great seat of divine knowledge wisdom and overstanding the pure reasoning. As you stand at the gates of this great temple, you immediately sense a presence of great power, not the power of one, but the power and strength of many. The unity and oneness that this temple projects is so strong that you are overwhelmed by a feeling of encouragement and warmth, even excitement. You feel safe and secure. Mesmerized by this prevailing mystique, your eyes explore this room which is full of secrets, and in your curiosity you learn and come to overstand the meaning of all the symbols within the walls of this most sacred and blessed temple.

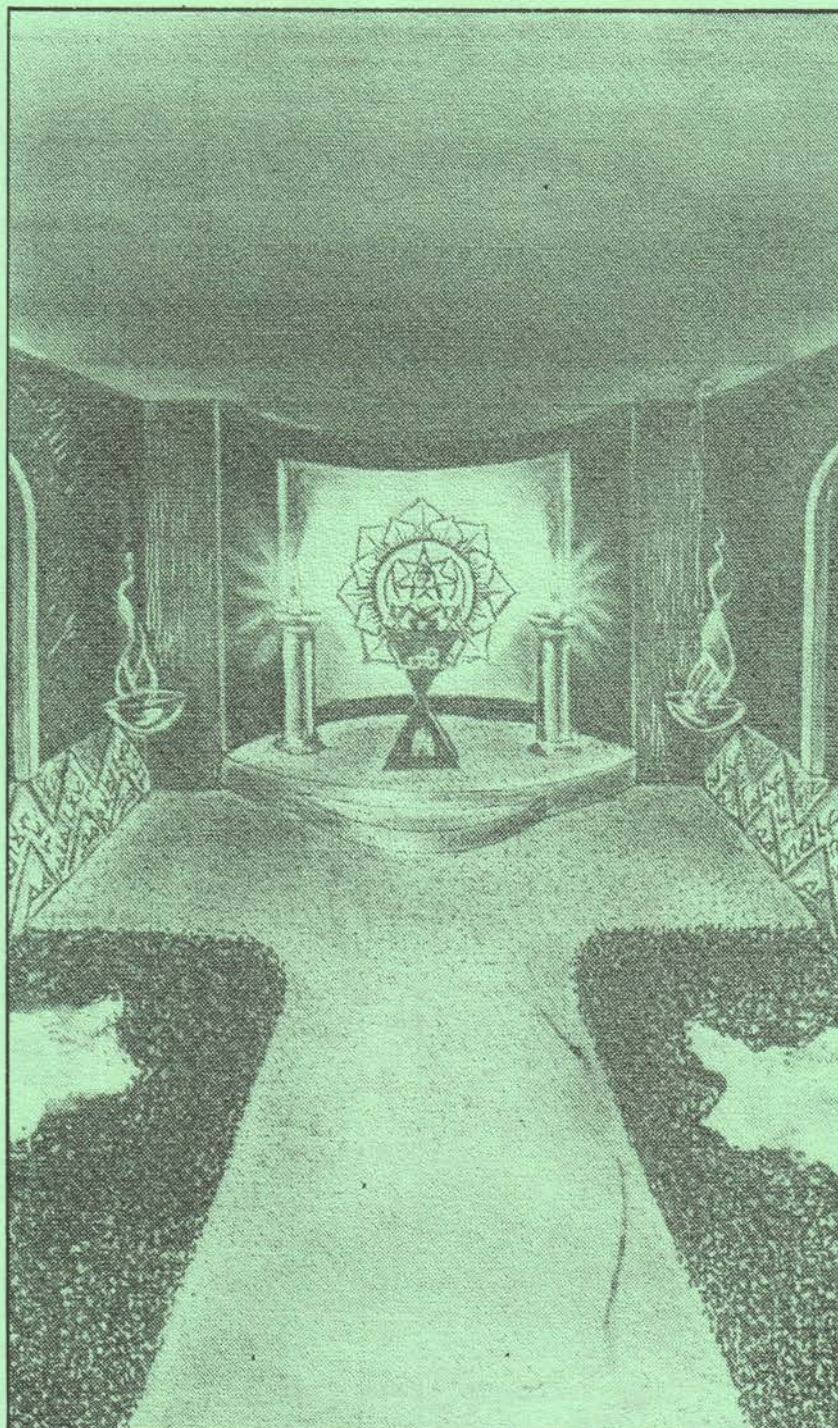

INCENSE

The first thing you notice as you stand at the gateway of the upper room is the sweet smell of incense. As your sense of smell causes your eyes to wander in search of the spot that emits this sweet scent, you suddenly see smoke rising from two large incense holders in the front of the room.

Incense, beloved Kosmosan, is a mixture of aromatic gums and spices which when burned produce a fragrance that perfumes the room. In our abode of love, the burning of incense symbolizes:

The Adoration Of Huwa (هُوَا), The Purification Of The Mind, The Attunement Of The Body To The Universe And The Protection Of The Soul Ruwḥ (رُوْح) And Spirit Nafs(نَفْس).

TEMPLE OF THE ANCIENT MYSTIC ORDER OF MELCHIZEDEK

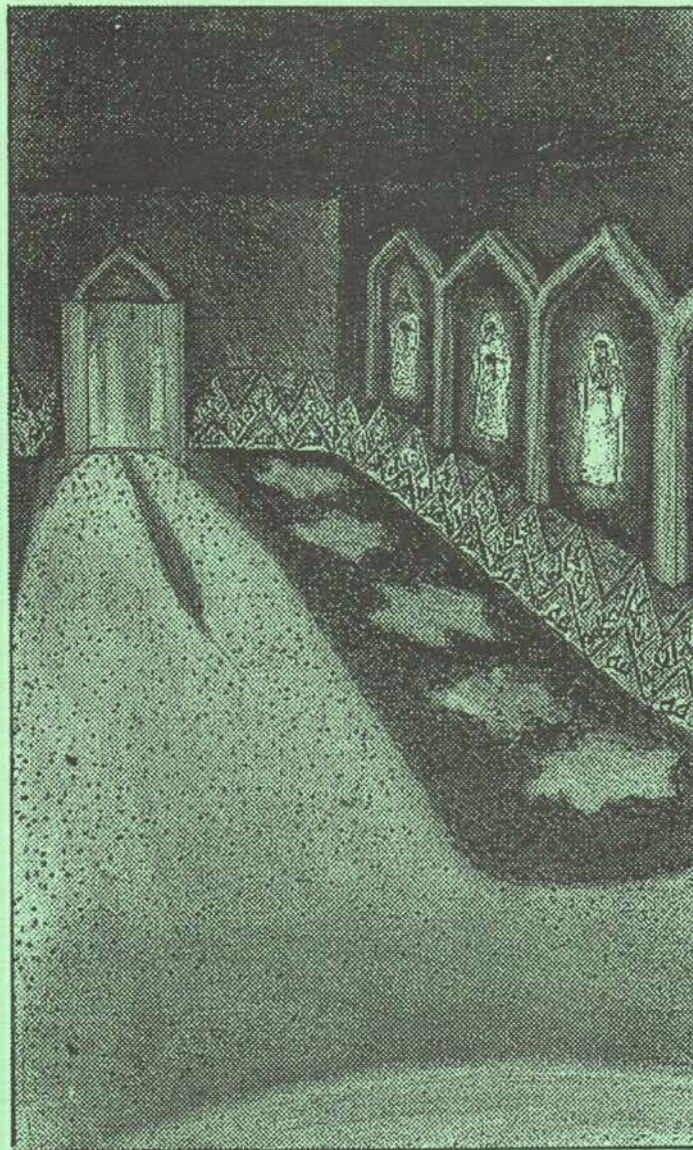

Study 3

Out of the so-called five physical senses, smell is the most suggestive. It has a way of whispering certain things to one's mind, both consciously and subconsciously. The sense of smell without a doubt influences the emotional state of the being, and thereby puts the body into various types of moods. Incense transforms your emotions in amazing ways. It is able to put the mind into either a positive or negative frame, thereby creating agreeable or disagreeable moods; it is able to lower your countenance until you are sad or even acting animalistic, or it can soothe your being and put you at peace with yourself and your surroundings. Witches, Warlocks and Sorcerers Burned Fennel, Hemlock, Coriander, Sulfur, Dragon's Blood and Wormwood just to name a few. In the temple of the Ancient Mystic Of Melchizedek O.M., however, only those incenses which are metaphysically potent enough to put Demons, Jinns, And Evil Beings In Flight Are Allowed, Which Is The All.

The incense burned in the upper room prepares the body to receive the vitality of the mind and soul. Its burning produces vapors of ether-like oils has antiseptic properties which help cure the unseen ailments of the body, thereby dispersing all weaknesses. This causes the body to become physically aware and puts the body in such a state that it causes the heart to rejoice, allowing you to worship and prostrate in reverence to the maintainer and provider of all good things. You are able to give reverence to THE MOST HIGH with a deep sound mind, and apologetic sense. The evitable outcome is preservation and salvation for the spirit and the soul.

INCENSE

THE PATH

Having found the reservoir of this sweet smell, you now enter the temple. As you take your first few steps, you notice that you are walking on a green carpet and that the carpeting on either side of the green carpet is black. On the black carpet there are sheepskin rugs, one for each member who will greet you.

The path upon which you are walking. Beloved Kosmosan, is symbolic of the path upon which you will travel as you journey on the road toward spiritual intellect. There is a special reason why the colors green and black were chosen to adorn the floors of this great temple, but before I explain the significance of those two colors, let me first define the word "Color."

The word color come from the latin word colorem meaning "color of the skin, color in general, appearance," The greek word for color is Kroma (χρῶμα) which means "surface of the body, skin, color of the skin". In Nubic word for color is al waan (ᐱᐅᐅᐅᐅᐅᐅ) which meaning "color; coloring, tint, tinge, hue, shade; complexion."

What is color? The word color is generally used with reference to the sensation which the brain receives when the retina of the eye is stimulated by light of a particular color. In other words, when you look at an object, you see it in terms of the light reflected from it. When light is reflected from an object, it travels to the retina which is the sensitive area at the back of the eye.

That light forms an image there, and the nerves in the retina sends the image to the brain. The retina has two types of cells which respond to light rays. One type of cell is called rods and the other is called cones. The rods are very sensitive in dim light rays, but do not respond to colors which explains why you cannot see color in dim light, whereas, the cones which respond only to stronger light provide your color vision.

Ra "The Sun Deity"

Light as you know it, travels in waves going from long wavelength to short wavelength called "rays" from RA "The Sun Deity of ancient Kemet "Egypt." Rays comes from Ra, Another Way To Pronoun Ra Is Re. It's Pronounced as Ra, Rah Or Re equaling Ray. The Nubic word for See (ᐱᐅᐅᐅᐅᐅᐅ) Is Ra'a. You need the light rays of the sun to see., thus "The Sun Deity" RA.

Dispersion Breaks Multiwavelength White Light Into Its Component Colors, Or Spectrum

Study 3

There are those lights whose wavelengths are too long and others whose wavelengths are too short to be seen by the naked eye, such as, ultra violet light (black light) or infra-red light. Violet light has the shortest wavelength per inch and red light has the longest. When a narrow beam of the white light passes through a transparent prism, it spreads out into a band of colors called a spectrum.

These colors are the same as that of a rainbow. As the colors blend together, they run from violet through blue, green and yellow to red. By using a prism to form a spectrum, one learns that white light is a mixture of many colored lights and that you can make colored lights from white light and make white light by mixing colored lights. Out of the seven colors which are formed by the white light as it passes through the prism (red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet).

There are two kinds of primary colors. Primary colors only means that many colors can be produced by mixing those three colors together. The primary colors of light are red, green and blue, whereas, the primary colors of paint are red, yellow and blue. You can form colored lights by blending groups of colors from the spectrum. For example, if you take about a third of the spectrum at the red and blend its colors, you will end up with red light. If you take a third of the spectrum at the violet end, the blended light will be blue, and if you take the middle third of the spectrum, its colors will blend to form green which brings us to the significance of the color green.

Although you can make the color green for painting by combining the colors yellow and blue, there is also a "true green." This true green is the color which one sees through the prism and in the rainbow. The color green has been used in our temple of wisdom, for green represents growth, youth, hope and vitality, The divine melinin is manifested on this Earth plane as green. (Expanded on in Lesson 10) Green is also the color of growth and vegetation, it is also a color which represents healing. For example, when the earth does not get its water, it becomes dry as sand, but once it relishes in the sun's rays and in the cool and nourishing rain, it becomes green with life. When the Nile overflows, the river banks of sand then begin to grow and heal, giving rise to vegetation. Thus, green symbolized rebirth, life, and it has life preserving powers. From the highest master whose name is SHAYKH KHIDR "The Green Elder", otherwise known as "The Ancient Of Days And Melchizedek". He emanates a green aura and originally manifested green in a olive tone. His is the aura which all Kosmosans try to direct, in order to gain strength and vitality.

Light is what makes it possible to see color so we say light creates color. When there is no light, there are no colors seen. When there is no color, there is black, black is the state of supreme balance and eternity (without chaos), THE ALL exists as blackness and things are seen in light and the light is within THE ALL, And for those reasons it has been chosen as one of the colors for Esagila the temple of The Ancient Mystic Order Of Melchizedek.

STEP TWO: MATURITY

Maturity, beloved Kosmosan, is the quality or state of being mature, which is to say ripe, experienced. When your soul has shaken off the chains that had it bound to the physical, a slave to "I" and "Self," when it has experienced and triumphed over the tests of the desires of your lower self, when it has reached the pinnacle of its leaps and bounds, and itself stands as a tree rooted in solid ground, then and only then can one say that it has matured. Once the soul has matured, then it begins to weigh all things that it does on scales of reasons, and measures its weight by way of its experiences. The soul continues to grow inwardly by way of its inner senses and ages with wisdom. And it is truly with age that wisdom comes.

[illegible]

"In Maturity You Sit In The Class Of Which Your Experiences Are The Teacher."

BY THE HAND OF MELCHIZEDEK: THE SPIRITUAL GUIDE

STEP THREE: OLD AGE

When I Say That The Soul Ages, I Do Not Mean To Imply That It Becomes Old As Does The Physical Body Of A Person. What I mean is that it is grown up, nourished and an elder by space and time, wisdom and intellect... A soul that overstands by way of its inner heart. Some say "the temple of the humim soul is built by three master masons personifying: wisdom, love and service." Service is the vehicle by which one is able to travel, love is the zeal and the speed one travels, but wisdom is the way one travels. Wisdom makes you perceptive of the source of all things, The Omnipotent. It raises your intellect intuitively so that you may appreciate the source and ultimately come to know yourself.

THE ALTAR

On the Platform is the altar. The altar has a two-fold meaning. It is the shape of an hourglass, a symbol of father time, of The Ancient Of Days, and a symbol of the last hour before the end of the universe of physical death. The altar is also the shape of a figure eight, or the symbol of eternity or eternal spiritual life. Symbolized By The Bow Tie Of The Sacred Dress Of O.M.

Symbol Of Eternity

Represent By The Bow Tie

On the lower half of the altar is the beehive, the house of the bee. It is said that humim is distinguished from other living things by certain qualities. One of those qualities is authority, and why not? They were given dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth. Humims was the authority and all others were to be submissive to them. This quality also exists among the bees. In the case of the bee, the leader is the queen bee. She is the ruler and all others are submissive to her.

The bee is symbolic of industry and abundance because the bee is so small, yet, it produces an abundance of sweet delicious honey which is a source of healing. A bee symbolizes wisdom because it represents a life of discipline. The beehive is a reminder that in labor, determination perseverance and devotion, one finds happiness and prosperity. The beehive is a symbol of the "hall of the order," and the bee at work is each devotee and Kosmosan. As bees stand guard over the hive and sacrifice their lives upon intrusion, so do the disciples of this order work and sacrifice for spiritual perfection.

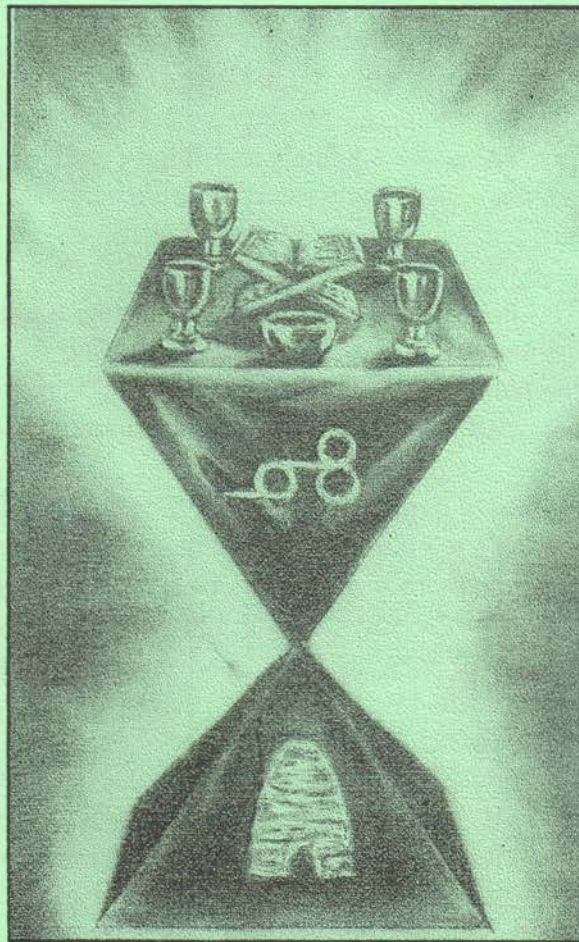

A Bee Symbolizes Wisdom

On the top half of the altar is found the symbol Huwa (ᐱᐱᐱᐱ). This symbol represents "He Who is." Huwa (ᐱᐱᐱᐱ) or "He Who Is" is the source of all things great and small. "He" is the "god" of Christianity, the "Yahweh" or Judaism, the "Ahura Mazda" of Zoroastrianism, "Allah" of Al-Islaam and "Brahman" of Hinduism.

The Holy Tablets, Chapter One "Khalqu" Tablet 2:114

Wisdom is rarer than emerald, and yet they are found amongst the women who gather at the grindstones..

THE ALTAR

"He" is none of them, they are all of him; the Omnipresent (everywhere present), the Omnipotent (all powerful), and the Omniscient (the all knowing); and the reason why all mystic orders exist and to whom their love is directed

"He" is the subject of all Mystic expressions and the object of all Mystic expressions. When the kosmosans chant, it is about:

ጳጳሳዊ ጳጳሳዊ, ጳጳሳዊ ጳጳሳዊ ጳጳሳዊ ጳጳሳዊ ጳጳሳዊ ጳጳሳዊ ጳጳሳዊ ጳጳሳዊ ጳጳሳዊ ጳጳሳዊ

Yaa Huw, Yaa Huw, Ya Man La, Ya'lamu Ma Huw Illa Huw

THE BOWL OF FIGS AND DATES

On top of the altar is a bowl of figs and dates. The bowl is symbolic of a beggar's vessel held out by the hand, not out of want, but out of need. The bowl when empty represents the temple or the physical body, poor of spirit, aching with hunger and thirsty for intellect. The body, alone and weak, begs the masters for guidance and cries to the Omnipotent for nourishment. Impoverished, it remains weak and without strength, hoping for deliverance and salvation. The bowl full with dates and figs represents the temple or physical body replenished with the spirit and saturated with love, electrified with energy. Why dates and figs? Dates are the fruit of the palm tree. They are left upon the palm tree after they are ripened until they have become almost dry. From dates, honey can be made called "date honey."

Dates warm the body, satisfy pain and strengthen the stomach. They are nutritious and a remedy for hemorrhoids, intestinal disorders, and bad thoughts. It is even effective for reviving a person who has fainted. The palate or roof of the mouth of a new born infant is rubbed with a chewed date, an act of initiation in the ways of life and its experiences. When that child has matured and passes on, that date will keep his or her soul nourished until the soul ascends to be judged to see if it passed the test of life.

Figs are like dates, very nourishing. Figs were distributed at the poor in time of famine. Master Utnafishtim (Noah) took figs into the ark to nourish his family and the animals. Figs are easy to digest and help to carry off phlegm. They also help remove obstructions in the kidneys, bladder and liver. They help to relieve inflammation of the throat and lung and are an antidote for swellings. Master Hiylel (Isaiah who's real name is Isha'ya) used figs to cure King Hezzekiel who was "sick unto death" of his boil.

There are many kinds of figs, that of the desert, that of the cultivated land, that of the plains and that of the mountains.

The figs tree sheds its leaves in the winter. Before it is covered with leaves again, green figs form and continue to grow during the summer. Some fall off and wither, some ripen. There are those that ripen early and those that ripen late. And for this reason figs are picked daily because they do not ripen at the same time. Hence, they are said to have "untimely fruit". and so the parable of the fig:

Mathew 24:32

απο δε τησ συκησ μαθετε την παραβολην: οταν ηδη ο κλαδος αυτησ γενηται απαλωσ και τα φυλλα εκφυη, γινωσκετε οτι εγγυσ το θερωσ:

" But Now You Must Learn A Parable Of The Fig Tree; When His Branches Become Yet Tender, And Puts Forth It Leaves, You Will Know That Summer Is Near "

And The Proverb 27:18:

נֶצֶר הָאֵנָה יֹאכַל פְּרִיָּהּ וְשֹׁמֵר אֲדֹנָיו יִכְבֹּד:

*"Whoever Keeps The Fig Tree Will Eat Of The Fruits Of It: So He That Waits On His Adonai
"Lord And Master" Will Be Honoured."*

Out of the nourishment and wholesome goodness of the figs and dates,+ masters and their disciples remained healthy. And for this reason the bowl on the altar remains full, for if the bowl remains full, never lacking, then the temple or body remains sounds physically and spiritually.

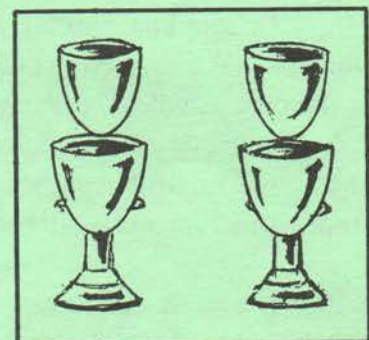

Angelic Being
UTNAFISTIM
(Noah)

Angelic Being
SHA'YA
(Isaiah)

THE FOUR CHALICES

On the altar are four chalices, or cups. One of milk, one of water, one of wine, and one of honey. The milk symbolizes religion, for once the veil of ignorance has been removed from your eyes, you will be a babe again, nursed by the truth of all religions which is to love the source of all life, the Omnipotent. Water symbolizes purity, for once the veil has been removed from your eyes, you will have been cleansed of the filth of the earth and the filth by which it entices you.

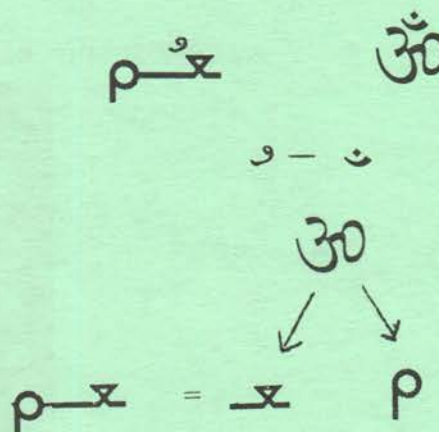

Honey symbolizes healing, for once the veil has been removed from your eyes, your body will be healed and your soul will be cured of all physical weaknesses. And wine symbolizes rejoicing, for once you have removed the veil from your eyes, you will become intoxicated with the love that you have for the source and the love that the source has for you.

Study 3

Within the inverted heart is a six-pointed star formed by an upright triangle and an inverted triangle. The upright triangle represents the Omnipotent's celestial kingdom and the inverted triangle represents his terrestrial kingdom.

The six-pointed star that is produced by the combination of these two triangles encircles the name Huwa (ᐅᐅ) He Who Is. Oneness is achieved with Huwa, by attuning your soul to the sacred tone of the universe. This tone is all encompassing and it has no limits. It is the medium to the source whose love cannot be contained, for it is ever so boundless. The sacred tone of which I speak is the 'Ayn (ᐅ) principle or the sound of "aum". notice, if you will, that the sound of "aum" is as the sound of the first letter in the words "Om-niscient", "Om-nipotent", and "Om-nipresent, three attributes of the Supreme. This sound rises from the throat to the tip of the lips, it flows to the center of the head and escapes from the ears. The Hindu symbol of Aum is like to the Nubian letter of 'Ayn and Miym.

The translation of the word "Aum" is "So Be It", it also means to prevail; to spread over; to reign or to dominate and surely, the Omnipotent is the source and force of the universes, whose power overshadows all of creation.

TALISMAN (ᐅᐅᐅᐅᐅᐅ)

The word Talisman comes from the classical Arabic Tilsam, (ᐅᐅᐅᐅᐅᐅ) in Nubian it's (ᐅᐅᐅᐅᐅᐅ) it's also a word from the Greek Telesma (ᐅᐅᐅᐅᐅᐅ) meaning "consecration, mystery" taken from the Greek root word Telein (ᐅᐅᐅᐅᐅᐅ) "meaning to fulfill perform; to pay; to initiate into mysteries"

Every person on earth has their star in the sky which exercises a mysterious influence upon their life, either favorably or unfavorably. A person may bless another by saying may the lord make your star fall. It was the unfavorable star that he was afraid of, the unseen. Which brings us to the subject of talismans.

Humans have tried to protect themselves from calamity and the unseen forces since time past. One of the ways they did this was making use of what seemed sacred to him. Placing this sacred thing in one's house, or close to the person gave many a sigh of relief. This sacred thing is sacred things in one's house, or close to the person gave many sigh of relief. This sacred thing is what is called: A Talisman. persons who imagined that they was constantly surrounded by evil spirits, which lie in wait, was provided with a talisman that they constantly carried with them.

There are two types of protection that come from Talismans, the first is through mental power. And the second is with the aid of an object. In the first, the veil has been removed from the eyes and nature and its forces work for you. In the second, with the help of words and objects, the spirits are invoked and brought down to you.

Amulet, charm, hirz, haamilah, all are the same.. All are Talismans, the meaning of talisman were confounded when charms and amulets were used for evil purposes, however, the original purposes remained the same to defend to protect and to heal the owner of the Talisman amy be suspended from the neck, worn inside clothings, outside of the clothings, worn around the arm or the wrist, concealed in a ring, attached to a turban or head dress, hidden in a brass case, a silver case, a steel case, or a leather case.

Each object used as a Talisman possesses a power that extends from the unseen and it linked with faith. Every "true" Talisman is charged with the force which it is intended to represent. For this reason one should know what he is doing when using a talisman, for it only takes one letter to send one's soul to be damned for all eternity.

The Ancient Mystic Order Of Melchizedek uses a Talisman only for the sole purpose of putting the wearer in communication with the source of all life so that they may be granted protection, physically and spiritually, and the source of healing, physically and spiritually.

The temple of The Ancient Mystic Order Of Melchizedek is a place of great inspiration; however, you can only enter it after you have reached a certain heights I your studies. When you search that height, an invitation to this will be extended to you and it is only with that invitation that you will be allowed to enter. The gates of this temple will open only to he who is worthy of its glory.

Beloved kosmosan, I am aware that you may find the first few studies you have received thus far, somewhat rudimentary, but I assure you that it is to your advantage. It is my responsibility as your spiritual guide to seek a method of study which will best suit you, and thus, I have found that rather than give you immediate mystical heights, which would only cause your confusion, it is better to guide you step by step so that the teaching will become a permanent par of your life. The teaching that you have received so far are stepping stones to greater overstanding. Overstanding you will acquire if you apply yourself to the study of all the lessons, for in every lesson, regardless of how insignificant it may seem to you there is improvemnent.
